
In 2005, Matthew Strain underwent heart surgery with Dr. David Adams, a world-renowned mitral valve specialist at Mount Sinai Heart. And now he's in the best shape of his life.

But when 260 million people watch him cross the finish line, he'll be feeling even better. 1-800-MD-SINAI mountsinai.org. Another day, another breakthrough.

IF YOU

REALLY WANT TO SEE WHAT A REPAIRED

HEART VALVE LOOKS LIKE,
